

1 handwriting. It is not mine, and it is not my secretary's.
2 That's not to say that someone in our office might have sent
3 it, but I would tend to doubt it. I do not recognize this
4 handwriting.

5 JUDGE SIPPEL: There is a reference, handwritten
6 reference that seems to be cut off up at the top right hand
7 of this envelope or towards the top, and it looks like owner
8 something state.

9 MR. BROWN: Your Honor, that's notes I made there
10 when I brought some information back from Alabama when I
11 went down to, to the home down there. This is some 12 information I brought back in this particular envelope. I
13 stuck it in this particular envelope so I would know where 14 it was at when I got back to, to Hernando.

15 JUDGE SIPPEL: Well, does that reference have
16 anything to do with what was in the envelope or the date
17 that you received it?

18 MR. BROWN: No, sir.

19 JUDGE SIPPEL: Then so we disregard that, right?

20 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir. Disregard that.

21 JUDGE SIPPEL: Then what about the large
22 handwriting that's written up above the Brown

CAROL J. THOMAS STENOTYPE
REPORTING SERVICES, INC.

3162 MUSKET COURT
FAIRFAX, VIRGINIA 22030
(703) 273-9221

1 Communications? What does that say, do you know?

2 MR. BROWN: Land lease.

3 JUDGE SIPPEL: Hold.

4 MR. BROWN: It means for me to hold it, that I--so
5 not to throw this particular envelope away.

6 JUDGE SIPPEL: Again, that has absolutely nothing
7 to do with the date that you might have received it
8 originally?

9 MR. BROWN: No, sir.

10 JUDGE SIPPEL: Okay. Say no more about it. This
11 is not able to be identified by the Bureau counsel, and you
12 cannot--are you able to identify an approximate date that 13 you received it and what was in it?

14 MR. BROWN: Let me see, Your Honor. This envelope
15 was folded. I don't know whether the Post Office done this 16 or who done this, but this envelope was folded and put in 17 this particular envelope, and I don't see a date on it, Your
18 Honor, that would identify it, but it did come this year
19 1992.

20 JUDGE SIPPEL: You're sure that came in 1992 to 21 station WKIJ at Box--well, you say it was changed--1332.

22 MR. BROWN: Well, Your Honor--

CAROL J. THOMAS STENOTYPE
REPORTING SERVICES, INC.

3162 MUSKET COURT
FAIRFAX, VIRGINIA 22030
(703) 273-9221

1 JUDGE SIPPEL: We are talking about page 4.

2 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir.

3 JUDGE SIPPEL: Did you say it was received in 4 1992?

5 MR. BROWN: I believe, if my recollection serves
6 me correctly, Your Honor, you will see I have ownership
7 statement for '92 there that I received from the Commission.
8 We received one of these each year, and--

9 JUDGE SIPPEL: Yes.

10 MR. BROWN: I believe this is an envelope that 11 that came in for 1992, the ownership statement that we fill
12 out and return to the Commission each year.

13 JUDGE SIPPEL: I see what you're saying, but 14 again, this is addressed to you. You mean it might have 15 been a form that you received that you had to send back?

16 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir.

17 JUDGE SIPPEL: Again, you're not really sure?

18 MR. BROWN: I'm--I won't say I'm sure because I'm 19 not, but I want to show that we--what I'm trying to show is 20 we do get the mail.

21 JUDGE SIPPEL: Do you have any objection to 22 receiving this into evidence?

CAROL J. THOMAS STENOTYPE
REPORTING SERVICES, INC.

3162 MUSKET COURT
FAIRFAX, VIRGINIA 22030
(703) 273-9221

1 MS. LADEN: Yes, Your Honor. I don't know when it
2 was sent. I'm just worried--I realize what it is being
3 offered for, and for that limited purpose, I suppose I have 4 no objection, but I'm concerned that it will be offered to 5 show that the Commission was using the wrong address, and I
6 don't know what period of time the Commission sent this.
7 And for that reason, I'm not sure that it is probative of 8 anything.

9 JUDGE SIPPEL: Well, it's--Mr. Brown's articulated
10 what his theory is. He is prepared to put into evidence
11 envelopes which he received. I mean he is not trying to say
12 they were wrongly addressed. He didn't receive them. He is 13 saying he is getting his mail.

14 MS. LADEN: I'm willing to stipulate that Brown
15 Communications has regularly received mail from the 16 Commission. We have never contended otherwise. I'm willing 17 to stipulate to that.

18 JUDGE SIPPEL: I recognize that, but he is trying 19 to make his record. It might be--I'm going to permit him to 20 do it as long as you want to do it. I mean if there is a
21 stipulation that is going to be worked out--do you want to 22 stipulate the rest of these in then? That way we can do it

CAROL J. THOMAS STENOTYPE
REPORTING SERVICES, INC.

3162 MUSKET COURT
FAIRFAX, VIRGINIA 22030
(703) 273-9221

1 that way.

2 MS. LADEN: No, Your Honor, because I think I
3 should make my, my concerns for the record.

4 JUDGE SIPPEL: All right. I think before we go
5 further on this--okay. I am going to, for the limited
6 purpose of what you're saying, Mr. Brown, I'm going to 7 receive this into evidence. I'll treat it as, as being
8 admitted over the objection of Bureau, although Bureau
9 counsel, we are really not fighting over these documents.

10 MR. BROWN: Yes.

11 (Brown Exhibit No. 1, page 4
12 was received into evidence.)

13 JUDGE SIPPEL: But for the record perhaps, she 14 wants to protect the record. That's fine. But before we go
15 further on anymore of these, in light of the way that we are 16 getting into your recollection of facts and what not, and it
17 does relate to your theory of the case, that you crossed
18 over that, that sometimes narrow line of advocate counsel
19 and you're becoming a witness, so I'm going to administer
20 the oath to you, but I want you to understand that your 21 participation here today is when you're doing things that an 22 attorney would otherwise be doing, because you have the

CAROL J. THOMAS STENOTYPE
REPORTING SERVICES, INC.

3162 MUSKET COURT
FAIRFAX, VIRGINIA 22030
(703) 273-9221

1 obligation to be very candid with myself and with everybody
2 participating in this, I'm only going to treat what you're
3 saying as testimony if you're actually telling us what
4 documents are or what you think things have happened.

5 All right? Do you understand me?

6 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir.

7 JUDGE SIPPEL: You are here in both capacities.
8 You're a witness, and you're an attorney. You're a counsel.
9 You're counsel yourself pro se.

10 MR. BROWN: Could I say, Your Honor, that what,
11 this--what I explained to you a while back what we were,
12 what I was trying to show, that we did get the mail from the 13 Commission, that's all I'm trying to show, Your Honor.

14 JUDGE SIPPEL: I understand. I understand what 15 you're saying.

16 MR. BROWN: Okay.

17 JUDGE SIPPEL: I'm going to administer the oath at 18 this time, though.

19 MR. BROWN: Okay.

20 JUDGE SIPPEL: Just stand, raise your right hand.

21 WHEREUPON,

22 JIMMY D. BROWN

CAROL J. THOMAS STENOTYPE
REPORTING SERVICES, INC.

3162 MUSKET COURT
FAIRFAX, VIRGINIA 22030
(703) 273-9221

1 having been duly sworn, was called as a witness herein, and
2 testified as follows:

3 JUDGE SIPPEL: Now we are on to page 5 of Exhibit
4 No. 1. Again, this is a handwritten envelope, appears to be
5 a copy of to, addressed Jimmy D. Brown, P.O. Box 1332,
6 Jasper, Alabama, ZIP 35501.

7 Again, it looks like--correct me if I'm wrong--it
8 looks like a Post Office correction has changed that to 9 Route 10?

10 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir.

11 JUDGE SIPPEL: Box what? Is that 132?

12 MR. BROWN: It's an 8, Your Honor.

13 JUDGE SIPPEL: 138?

14 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir.

15 JUDGE SIPPEL: And it is certified mail number P
16 003 358 875, and that's P like in Pennsylvania.

17 Now you received this in the normal--you received
18 this envelope?

19 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir.

20 JUDGE SIPPEL: And does it tie in with another
21 certificate that the Bureau had? Is this, can we cross
22 reference this, right?

CAROL J. THOMAS STENOTYPE
REPORTING SERVICES, INC.

3162 MUSKET COURT
FAIRFAX, VIRGINIA 22030
(703) 273-9221

1 MS. LADEN: Your Honor, yes. It is not in my
2 exhibits. I do have the card here. It is a document that
3 we sent from my office. The certified number corresponds.
4 The handwriting is my secretary's, and I can represent it is
5 a duplicate. It is a document that we served in this 6 proceeding, and as I indicated, we served everything to the 7 three addresses that have been discussed here.

8 JUDGE SIPPEL: That's right.

9 MS. LADEN: We do in fact have a record of this.
10 This definitely came from our office.

11 JUDGE SIPPEL: Do you have a date that it came 12 back?

13 MS. LADEN: It has a received date 5/16. The year
14 is unclear again, and if you remember, we do have an exhibit
15 in our exhibits that was also received 5-16, which I believe
16 was a duplicate of this one, but I am willing to stipulate
17 because I know that I hve only been working on this case in 18 '92, that this envelope was received in May of 1992.

19 JUDGE SIPPEL: I think that has to be the case
20 because this, this certified number I think is one digit off
21 from the other one, page No. 3, and we have clearly 22 established that as being a 1992 mailing, so for all these

CAROL J. THOMAS STENOTYPE
REPORTING SERVICES, INC.

3162 MUSKET COURT
FAIRFAX, VIRGINIA 22030
(703) 273-9221

1 reasons, I'm going to accept this as a 1992 mailing, and
2 that you have testified that you have received.

3 Right, Mr. Brown?

4 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir. It's the, it's the request
5 for admissions is what this--it's a duplicate, as Ms. Laden
6 said.

7 JUDGE SIPPEL: All right. So under this page, the 8 envelope that's reflected in page 5 to your Exhibit 1,
9 contains the Request for Admissions that Ms. Laden prepared
10 and sent to you?

11 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir.

12 JUDGE SIPPEL: I will accept that as a
13 stipulation. Then again, I will assume that--is there any 14 objection on behalf of the Bureau to it be being received in 15 evidence?

16 MS. LADEN: No, Your Honor.

17 JUDGE SIPPEL: I'm going to receive it into
18 evidence.

19 MS. LADEN: I should say we don't object to, to 20 its receipt for the limited purpose that Mr. Brown has 21 indicated, but I did want the record to be clear that this 22 is a duplicate address that we used with two others.

CAROL J. THOMAS STENOGRAPHY
REPORTING SERVICES, INC.

3162 MUSKET COURT
FAIRFAX, VIRGINIA 22030
(703) 273-9221

1 JUDGE SIPPPEL: Right. I hear that. I hear that
2 very clearly. All right. Then under the again limited
3 relevance that this has, but it does have relevance, I'm
4 going to receive page 5 of Exhibit 1 into evidence at this
5 time.

6 (Brown Exhibit No. 1, page 5
7 was received into evidence.)

8 JUDGE SIPPPEL: Page 6, this is a little different.
9 This one is typewritten to WKIJ Box 1332 in Jasper, Alabama,
10 and then it looks like it has some kind of a computerized
11 typewritten notation to the lower right that says notify 12 sender of new address. I'm abbreviating this somewhat, but 13 RR 10, box 134, Jasper, Alabama.

14 Is that what that says? Am I reading that 15 correctly, Mr. Brown, as you read it?

16 MR. BROWN: I can't tell what the--it kind of 17 looks like a 4, but it should be an 8, but it looks like a
18 4, which is incorrect for the address.

19 JUDGE SIPPPEL: What can you tell us about this 20 document?

21 MR. BROWN: Well, what I wanted to show about this
22 document is this document is the EBS, the Emergency

CAROL J. THOMAS STENOTYPE
REPORTING SERVICES, INC.

3162 MUSKET COURT
FAIRFAX, VIRGINIA 22030
(703) 273-9221

1 Broadcast System. This come from the Commission, too, and
2 it has the Post Office box address on it, and we received
3 this by first class mail, or I'm assuming they sent this as
4 first class mail. And we received this the first of April.
5 This EBS thing runs quarterly. We get a new list of this
6 each quarter of the year.

7 JUDGE SIPPEL: What is the relevance of this?

8 MR. BROWN: To show that we get the mail.

9 JUDGE SIPPEL: This doesn't come from the Bureau
10 then? This comes from some other--this doesn't come from 11 Ms. Laden's office?

12 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir. It just shows that--

13 JUDGE SIPPEL: All right. I understand it. Ms.
14 Laden?

15 MS. LADEN: I have noticed on the computer
16 printouts that it has a date of December 24, 1991. I don't 17 know what that date means.

18 JUDGE SIPPEL: Oh, I see that, yes. Thank you.

19 MR. BROWN: Well, I didn't see that, Your Honor.
20 I thought that was for this, for this particular one. I may 21 have picked up the wrong one, Your Honor, by mistake, and--

22 JUDGE SIPPEL: Again, what are we talking about

CAROL J. THOMAS STENOTYPE
REPORTING SERVICES, INC.

3162 MUSKET COURT
FAIRFAX, VIRGINIA 22030
(703) 273-9221

1 here? You again want to show this, use this for the purpose
2 of showing you do get your mail from the Commission?

3 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir. That's all.

4 JUDGE SIPPEL: Do you have any objection to that
5 Ms. Laden?

6 MS. LADEN: Yes, Your Honor, because I think the 7 date at which the Commission was using certain addresses is 8 important, and it's hard to establish what the date was or 9 what office in the Commission was using this address.

10 In some of our exhibits, there are letters written
11 by Mr. Brown where he requests that we return,
12 correspondence be sent to this address, and we just don't 13 know whether this is one of those documents, and for that
14 reason, I just don't think it's relevant to anything, and I
15 would object to it.

16 JUDGE SIPPEL: Go ahead.

17 MR. BROWN: This--no, sir. This is, don't obtain
18 to, obtain to this hearing, Your Honor. This, I don't 19 know--the department of the Commission that sent this is 20 part of the Commission, but they send us a Emergency
21 Broadcast System authentic word to be used in emergency
22 cases each quarter of the year, so I would--this one here

CAROL J. THOMAS STENOTYPE
REPORTING SERVICES, INC.

3162 MUSKET COURT
FAIRFAX, VIRGINIA 22030
(703) 273-9221

1 would be for 1992 for January, February, March.

2 JUDGE SIPPEL: Of 1992?

3 MR. BROWN: I believe, sir. Let me--

4 JUDGE SIPPEL: I don't want to get into it again.
5 This is not, this is, this is really not directly relevant.
6 I don't want to spend a lot of time on--you have given me a
7 general idea as to what this, this pertains to. Ms. Laden,
8 it has nothing to do with the work that she is doing on 9 this.

10 MR. BROWN: Yes.

11 JUDGE SIPPEL: The only thing you're trying to do
12 is say here is another envelope which was addressed to you
13 and you received it?

14 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir. That's what I'm showing,
15 Your Honor.

16 JUDGE SIPPEL: All right. And I understand what 17 Ms. Laden's objection is, and I think for my purposes, what
18 Ms. Laden is saying goes to the weight of this more than it
19 goes to the technical relevance of it, so I'm going to 20 overrule her objection and receive it for the limited
21 purpose that you're, that you have, that you're testifying
22 to.

CAROL J. THOMAS STENOTYPE
REPORTING SERVICES, INC.

3162 MUSKET COURT
FAIRFAX, VIRGINIA 22030
(703) 273-9221

1 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir.

2 (Brown Exhibit No. 1, page 6
3 was received into evidence.)

4 MS. LADEN: Now let's go up to No. 7. This is
5 page 7 of Exhibit 1--something similar. That was 6 typewritten addressed to 314 Highway, and then it looks like
7 the Post Office made a change again to Route 10, Box 138, is 8 that, does that--

9 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir.

10 JUDGE SIPPEL: Make sense to you?

11 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir.

12 JUDGE SIPPEL: And it is a certified mail No.
13 97114, and there is an indication here of a Post Office
14 stamp. It says first notice April 2, 1992.

15 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir.

16 JUDGE SIPPEL: What was in that envelope, do you
17 know?

18 MR. BROWN: I don't remember, sir.

19 JUDGE SIPPEL: Okay.

20 MR. BROWN: I'll just say I don't remember, but 21 we--it could pertain to this case. I don't know.

22 JUDGE SIPPEL: All right. Ms. Laden, do you have

CAROL J. THOMAS STENOTYPE
REPORTING SERVICES, INC.

3162 MUSKET COURT
FAIRFAX, VIRGINIA 22030
(703) 273-9221

1 any--does this envelope tell you anything?

2 MS. LADEN: No, Your Honor. It does have a date
3 here that seems to be April '92, but I don't, I can't say
4 that it's not from our office. I would tend to doubt it.

5 Also the certified mail numbers that we, the 6 sequence we seem to be on right now is a longer number than 7 this one here.

8 JUDGE SIPPEL: Yes. That's true.

9 MS. LADEN: The label we have been using is 10 different from this one. This seems to be a stamp which we 11 don't have in our office. I don't know where this came 12 from, Your Honor.

13 JUDGE SIPPEL: All right. The same purpose that--

14 MR. BROWN: Same purpose, Your Honor.

15 JUDGE SIPPEL: All right. I'll receive it.

16 That's page 7 of Exhibit 1 is received in evidence at this
17 time.

18 (Brown Exhibit No. 1, page 7
19 was received into evidence.)

20 JUDGE SIPPEL: And page 8 is again typed to Jimmy
21 D. Brown, P.O. Box 1332 Jasper, Alabama, 35501.

22 Can you tell me what that's about?

CAROL J. THOMAS STENOTYPE
REPORTING SERVICES, INC.

3162 MUSKET COURT
FAIRFAX, VIRGINIA 22030
(703) 273-9221

1 MR. BROWN: Just to show that we received the
2 mail, Your Honor.

3 JUDGE SIPPEL: What was in that envelope, do you
4 know?

5 MR. BROWN: I don't remember, sir.

6 JUDGE SIPPEL: The notation on there, 28th April,
7 freeze off, do you see that to the left?

8 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir.

9 JUDGE SIPPEL: Who wrote that?

10 MR. BROWN: I did. That was a note that I was 11 talking to somebody at the Commission, and they were, I
12 could have been talking to Ms. Laden. We were discussing
13 when the freeze was coming off the AM.

14 JUDGE SIPPEL: What is the significance of the 15 April 28th date?

16 MR. BROWN: Sometimes I date--or I could have been 17 talking to May Bradfield.

18 JUDGE SIPPEL: My question is what is the 19 significance of April 28th?

20 MR. BROWN: I don't know, Your Honor.

21 JUDGE SIPPEL: Over on the right-hand corner, it
22 looks like there is a date of April 10, 4-10-92, 2:00 p.m.

CAROL J. THOMAS STENOTYPE
REPORTING SERVICES, INC.

3162 MUSKET COURT
FAIRFAX, VIRGINIA 22030
(703) 273-9221

1 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir.

2 JUDGE SIPPEL: Does that, that's a--

3 MR. BROWN: I'm trying to say this stuff from 4 memory, Your Honor. I believe that's a conversation I was 5 having with--

6 JUDGE SIPPEL: Whose handwriting is that?

7 MR. BROWN: That's mine.

8 JUDGE SIPPEL: All right.

9 MR. BROWN: When--May Bradfield at the 10 Commission's office, when I first--I may get a little ahead
11 of you. Stop me if I do, Your Honor.

12 JUDGE SIPPEL: I'm just going to stop you here.
13 It looks like you have got written up above that date the 14 word M-A-Y capital B.

15 MR. BROWN: With a period. That's May Bradford,
16 Your Honor.

17 JUDGE SIPPEL: Is that your handwriting?

18 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir, that is.

19 JUDGE SIPPEL: May--what's the last name again?

20 MR. BROWN: I believe it's--

21 JUDGE SIPPEL: The--

22 MR. BROWN: I believe it is May Bradfield. Yes,

CAROL J. THOMAS STENOTYPE
REPORTING SERVICES, INC.

3162 MUSKET COURT
FAIRFAX, VIRGINIA 22030
(703) 273-9221

1 May Bradfield, B-R-A-D-F--I-E L D; communication analyst is
2 who she is, Your Honor.

3 JUDGE SIPPEL: What would you be talking to her
4 about?

5 MR. BROWN: I would be talking about--this is when
6 I heard, the first time I heard that the station's license
7 were to be revoked, Your Honor.

8 JUDGE SIPPEL: That's the date that you first
9 heard?

10 MR. BROWN: Well, it's not the--I heard the date
11 by a gentleman that was working with me at that time, a Mr.
12 Jack Frost, that--

13 JUDGE SIPPEL: I don't want to diegress. I
14 thought I heard you say this was the first time that you
15 heard.

16 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir. Well, it's, it's the first
17 time I called the Commission after I heard that, Your Honor.

18 JUDGE SIPPEL: All right. And that is, that is 19 the freeze was off or on?

20 MR. BROWN: Well, no, sir.

21 JUDGE SIPPEL: What is that that you're referring 22 to?

CAROL J. THOMAS STENOTYPE
REPORTING SERVICES, INC.

3162 MUSKET COURT
FAIRFAX, VIRGINIA 22030
(703) 273-9221

1 MR. BROWN: What I'm talking to with this 4-10-92
2 is when I called Ms. Bradfield to ask ask her about the
3 license being revoked.

4 JUDGE SIPPEL: I see.

5 MR. BROWN: That they were a list of stations of 6 ten that were to have their license revoked, Your Honor.

7 JUDGE SIPPEL: All right. Now what does that have 8 to do with the April 28th date on the left-hand side of the 9 envelope?

10 MR. BROWN: I don't know. I don't remember, Your 11 Honor, but I believe the freeze went off.

12 JUDGE SIPPEL: Let's stop it right there. If you
13 don't know, you don't know.

14 MR. BROWN: I don't know, Your Honor.

15 JUDGE SIPPEL: Is there any objection to receiving
16 this into evidence?

17 MS. LADEN: I don't think so, Your Honor, but I
18 did want to say I don't know the source of this envelope. I
19 don't--

20 JUDGE SIPPEL: He has testified to it. I mean
21 unless we are going to question his veracity, he said he 22 wrote these notes on it.

CAROL J. THOMAS STENOTYPE
REPORTING SERVICES, INC.

3162 MUSKET COURT
FAIRFAX, VIRGINIA 22030
(703) 273-9221

1 MS. LADEN: I don't object to the notes. I object
2 to the envelope because I don't know when or where this
3 envelope came from or what was in it or what the date was.
4 I object to the envelope.

5 Now the note, I think there are several notes here
6 that are relevant, and I have some questions about them
7 later on, so I believe subject to cross, that I have no
8 problem with this, but I would object to the envelope as 9 showing anything because I don't know what the envelope came 10 from or when.

11 JUDGE SIPPEL: All right. Well, and I asked you
12 this question once before--what is your best recollection as 13 to what was inside this envelope?

14 MR. BROWN: Don't try and reconstruct it now.
15 Either you recall or you don't recall.

16 MR. BROWN: I don't recall, Your Honor.

17 JUDGE SIPPEL: Okay. All right. Well, I'm going
18 to receive it for two purpose. I'm going to receive it for 19 the purpose of again your general theory of relevance here,
20 that it's something the Commission sent to you that you
21 received, and in addition to that, your relevant testimony
22 with respect to your notations and of what you have thus far

CAROL J. THOMAS STENOGRAPHY
REPORTING SERVICES, INC.

3162 MUSKET COURT
FAIRFAX, VIRGINIA 22030
(703) 273-9221

1 testified to about your conversation with May Bradfield, et
2 cetera.

3 MR. BROWN: Could I say one more thing, Your
4 Honor?

5 JUDGE SIPPEL: Oh, yes.

6 MR. BROWN: If you look at Micky Williams, she is
7 also a, a person that the FCC--

8 JUDGE SIPPEL: Yes. I have the telephone number
9 down there.

10 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir. If you also notice, Your 11 Honor, there is a Son--I don't know how to say that last 12 name, Your Honor.

13 JUDGE SIPPEL: N-G-U-Y-E-N.

14 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir. That's a--

15 JUDGE SIPPEL: S-O-N.

16 MR. BROWN: It's the name of a gentleman at the 17 Commission, too. That I, if I can say, Your Honor, these 18 are people I might have been talking to before they referred 19 me to Ms. Laden.

20 JUDGE SIPPEL: Again, you don't have to speculate
21 on this, that you're telling me this is all your 22 handwriting?

CAROL J. THOMAS STENOTYPE
REPORTING SERVICES, INC.

3162 MUSKET COURT
FAIRFAX, VIRGINIA 22030
(703) 273-9221

1 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir.

2 JUDGE SIPPEL: You spoke to all these three
3 people?

4 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir.

5 JUDGE SIPPEL: And that the subject of the 6 conversation had to do with the notification that you had
7 received that your license was revoked?

8 MR. BROWN: No, Your Honor. The way I heard that
9 my license would be revoked was through a consultant
10 engineering firm, that a gentleman, Mr. Jack Frost, that she 11 has already, that I have already talked about, was working 12 with me. We were trying to get the station on the air, and 13 he had talked to a consultant engineering firm, and they 14 told him that there was a list of ten radio stations to have 15 their license revoked, and WKIJ was one of them.

16 JUDGE SIPPEL: I heard you testify before that it
17 was based on that information that you initiated the phone
18 call to Ms. May Bradfield. Is that correct?

19 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir that's correct.

20 JUDGE SIPPEL: What about these other people--Ms.
21 Williams?

22 MR. BROWN: I talked to Ms. Bradfield first

CAROL J. THOMAS STENOTYPE
REPORTING SERVICES, INC.

3162 MUSKET COURT
FAIRFAX, VIRGINIA 22030
(703) 273-9221

1 because she was the lady that I was dealing with on getting
2 the extensions and for the, that I was asking for authority
3 to, to get some work, that we were doing some technical work
4 to move the transmitter site, Your Honor.

5 JUDGE SIPPEL: I'm hearing what you're saying, but 6 I'm, all I'm trying to do is get you to identify the 7 significance of this information in terms of your
8 recollection.

9 We have got Ms. Bradfield. We understand what
10 happened with Ms. Bradfield.

11 MR. BROWN: Um-hum.

12 JUDGE SIPPEL: Did you have to speak to her?
13 After you talked to her, did you call these other people?

14 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir, I did.

15 JUDGE SIPPEL: You did testify to that?

16 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir.

17 JUDGE SIPPEL: And did you talk to them about the 18 same subject matter?

19 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir, and they referred me to a
20 Ms. Laden.

21 JUDGE SIPPEL: All right. For now, that's--

22 MR. BROWN: That's the--

CAROL J. THOMAS STENOTYPE
REPORTING SERVICES, INC.

3162 MUSKET COURT
FAIRFAX, VIRGINIA 22030
(703) 273-9221

1 JUDGE SIPPEL: I have an objection from the Bureau
2 with respect to one aspect of this envelope, this copy, this
3 page 8. I'm going to overrule that objection, but I am
4 receiving it in the limited way that I've received the other
5 two, as evidence of your theory that you do get
6 correspondence from the Commission.

7 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir.

8 JUDGE SIPPEL: You receive it, and in addition to 9 that, anything of relevance with respect to your notice,
10 your conversation, your testimony can be gone into further
11 today by Ms. Laden or myself, so I'm receiving that. It's 12 coming into evidence.

13 Page 8 of Exhibit No. 1 is received in evidence.

14 (Brown Exhibit No. 1, page 8
15 was received into evidence.)

16 JUDGE SIPPEL: Page 9, this is, again, it's a copy
17 of an envelope from, an FCC envelope handwritten to Jimmy D.
18 Brown, P.O. Box 1332 Jasper, Alabama, with a notation on the 19 bottom it looks like again something that came out of the 20 Post Office.

21 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir.

22 JUDGE SIPPEL: Computer printout or something. It

CAROL J. THOMAS STENOTYPE
REPORTING SERVICES, INC.

3162 MUSKET COURT
FAIRFAX, VIRGINIA 22030
(703) 273-9221

1 says May 27th, 1992, notify sender of new address, RR 10 Box
2 13, Jasper, Alabama.

3 Now this looks like something with the handwriting
4 that we've seen before, Ms. Laden.

5 Is this coming out of your office?

6 MS. LADEN: I recognize that handwriting, Your
7 Honor, but it's not certified.

8 MR. BROWN: Your Honor, this is a--the Mass Media
9 Bureau's status report came in this envelope, Your Honor.

10 MS. LADEN: I'm willing to stipulate to that, Your 11 Honor. I believe Mr. Brown is right because that document
12 was not sent certified, and it was filed on May 21, 1992.
13 On my--I might add, Your Honor, that it was sent to the 14 three addresses.

15 JUDGE SIPPEL: All right. I hear that, too. I am
16 receiving it into evidence then as page 9 of Brown Exhibit
17 No. 1, so all of Brown Exhibit No. 1 is now in evidence.

18 (Brown Exhibit No. 1, page 9
19 was received into evidence.)

20 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir

21 JUDGE SIPPEL: It's ten after eleven. Are you
22 prepared to continue until noon for a noon break?

CAROL J. THOMAS STENOGRAPHY
REPORTING SERVICES, INC.

3162 MUSKET COURT
FAIRFAX, VIRGINIA 22030
(703) 273-9221